The album „Dialectic Mind“ was written by Cerval in cooperation with the Berlin - based artist Anna Aly - Labana.

Her vocals created the backbone for a large part of the tracks.

There, Anna's vocal samples cross off - beat patterns, house organs, cosy and dark subbasses and more or less distorted guitar parts.

Especially in the purely instrumental pieces of „A Certain Values“ album the love of unbridled rhythm and old school broken beats shows up.

Clearly similar to programmed electronic music, classical songwriting is crucial for ACV's work: this is reflected both in the song structure and in the manner of the guitar parts.

„Dialectic Mind“ is an album that oscillates between the poles of drum 'n' bass, IDM and Indietronic and combines housy up to guitar-heavy sound with dark basses and drumpatterns from downtempo to break beat.
