The bass pushes and the snare rattles! Tobi Morare will be back in May 2022 with his new album „Soul Kitchen“. With the album he clearly reflects on his musical roots and beginnings!

With various samplers such as the Akai MPC 2000XL, Octatrack MK II and the Akai S20, the Maestro put together an album that unmistakably reflects the vibe of the nineties in hip hop and breakbeat and was produced in an outstanding way!

However, it is important to him that it is not a „retro album“ but a classic instrumental boom bap / breakbeat album. It should be timeless, according to Tobi Morare! And he delivered!
